

A report on the sensitization Programme on Financial Frauds for faculty members and students.

The IQAC of Lumding College had conducted an awareness programme on financial frauds for faculty members and undergraduate students of Lumding College on March 22, 2017 in collaboration with the Dept of Non Banking Supervision (DNBS), RBI, Guwahati. A total no. of 174 participants took part in the programme. Sri Saugata Chakraborty, Assistant General Manager, RBI Guwahati, conducted the programme. He dwelt at length on the menace of financial exploitation of common people by fraudsters employing various means, including to a great extent the use of cyber technology in recent times. He emphatically suggested to be extremely cautious before investing in any concern and not be carried away by their propaganda who aim at hoodwinking the investors with their high sounding false assurances of huge return in future. He observed that creating financial awareness among the teaching and student community is one of the key factors that contribute to the prevention of such frauds as the knowledge shared can spread rapidly through word of mouth. He elaborated on the various ways and means of prevention of the financial frauds. The programme raised a lot of awareness among the teachers and the students about the financial exploitation by the fraudsters.

Report on Earthquake and Fire Mock Drill.

The IQAC of Lumding College had initiated college level Earthquake and fire Mock Drill conducted by District Disaster Management Authority, Nagaon District in association with Indian Red cross society, Nagaon District branch on 23/03/2017 in the college campus. A total no. of 101 students were activity involved in the entire Mock Drill process besides 22 teachers, Sri Lakshman Prasad Barthakur, IRCS, NDB, lecturer of Emergency First Aid, British St. John Ambulance Association was there to lead the entire Mock Drill Process. A total no of 23 fire extinguishers were examined and their types sorted out. A Power Point presentation by the Resource Person was self explanative and offered many tips in the management of disaster. Additional observers like Sri Simnath Borah demonstrated the earthquake and fire management process. A mock fire alarm too was sounded to generate alertness and awareness amidst the students in any such eventuality. A few suggestions and recommendations were made by the team for updating the equipments and the relevant information from the concerned departments like NDRT, ADB and DDMA.

Report on the Workshop on Management Studies.

The workshop on the management studies held on 28th of Nov, 2017 was one of the commendable initiatives taken by the IQAC of Lumding College as part of its quality ascertaining processes. Two notable experts from the field of Management viz. Mr. Mandeep Das and Mr. Pradip Gogoi both from Assured Consultancy Service, had spoken in detail about the range and scope of Management studies in India. Around 70 participants took part in the workshop, most of them being aspirants for better career opportunities. They had also made it clear to the students about fresh avenues of Management studies and the process of admission in the premier institutions of the nation. Besides, the participants were given details of numerous financial assistance exclusively meant for financially weak students. The guest speakers stressed on the chief objectives of management studies viz. to equip entrepreneurs, owners and managers with essential business skills, knowledge and expertise to succeed in their enterprises. In the post lunch session, the experts were available for one to one interaction with the participants to the utmost satisfaction of the latter.

Report on Career as a Company Secretary.

The Institute of Company Secretaries of India, North-Eastern chapter, conducted a Career Awareness Programme regarding career as company Secretary at Lumding College, Lumding, Hojai, Assam on 9th September, 2017 for the students of HS and Undergraduate courses. Sri Chiranjeeb Sarma Roy, officer-in-charge, for NE chapter of EIRC of ICSI, and Sri Kaushal Bharat Bagadia, member of NE chapter of EIRC of ICSI, delivered their presentation in the programme. They interacted with the students and apprised them about the CS courses and CS profession and the opportunities to the students for achieving their goals. As many as 62 students participated in the programme.

Report on International Day against Drug abuse and illicit trafficking

International Day against Drug abuse and illicit trafficking was observed at Lumding College at the initiative of IQAC , Lumding College on 26.06.2016. The programme commenced with illumination of Lamp by the Principal and the guest of honour Mr. R.I. Mukhtar, Asst. Commissioner of police APTF, Assam . A warm reception was extended at the outset to the guest of honour and other guest to grace the Dias. One of the guests Mr. C. K. Koboi, Inspector (M) read out the speech by Born-Ki Mun . Dr. Amitava Dey, an authority on Drug abuse issue presented a paper which focused on the current scenario of Drug abuse and illicit trafficking and the consequent impact on the society .The speeches by the teachers, students and the chief of the NSS Unit of the college also highlighted on various issues related to recent measures adopted world wide by various organizations and NGOs to eradicate the rising trend of Drug addiction. The president summarised the measures taken locally to create awareness among the students in this connection. The programme concluded with vote of thanks by Dr. Amitava Dey.

Report on the Yoga Workshop Cum Training Programme

The IQAC of Lumding College had organised a workshop Cum Training Programme for 10 days (11th June to 20th June, 2016) in the college premises to commemorate 3rd International Yoga Day.

A ten-day long workshop provided lessons on Yoga to all the participants that included students, teachers and the office staff of the college. The instructors motivated the participants not only to practice yoga regularly but also to include yoga programme in annual festivals of the college in order to promote yoga among youth. The Yoga instructors demonstrated various forms of yoga such as Surya Namaskaar, Tarasan, Bakrasan, Shalavasan, Veerbhadrasan and some other physical exercises. Mr. B. Appa Rao and Mr. Sukanta were the trainers. All participants were trained exclusively on the last day of the workshop to perform on the International Day of Yoga ie. 21st June, 2016.

Report on Environment Awareness and 'World Environment Day'

On 5th June 2016, the Extension Cell Lumding College has organised an Awareness programme on Environment as a part of the celebration of World Environment Day with a motto 'Zero Tolerance for Illegal Wildlife Trade'. The programme was inaugurated by Dr. Mrinal Kanti Paul, Principal of the College. In his speech Dr. Paul spoke on the illegal trade of various endangered animal species especially the one horned Rhino from different wildlife sanctuary. Prof. Nilu Paul in accepting the speech of Dr. Paul suggested the audience about the necessity of maintaining balance between wildlife and human society. Md.Suleman Ali, H.O.D. of English, in his valuable speech focused on the illegal encroachment in the wild life sanctuary by poachers which is really alarming for the global society in maintaining future balance between human society and wild environment. The programme ended with a cleanliness drive in the campus.

Report on workshop on career in Scientific Research:

IQAC of Lumding College had organized a workshop on career in scientific Research on 29.08.2016 at Lumding College. Around 82 students took part in the workshop led by the resource person Dr. Jogen Kalita , Professor, Dept. of Zoology, Gauhati University. The chief focus of the workshop was on the scope of scientific Research in various fields such as Bio medical engineering and Bio physics. The outgoing students were given the stimuli to prepare themselves to pursue their career in areas pertaining to chemical Biology, Clinical Research, Computational Biology, etc. In his inspiring address, Dr. Jogen Kalita had highlighted the relevance of scientific research and its impact on socio-economic aspects of developmental process. He also emphasized on the multi faceted aspects of research projects that can have a considerable impact on social development. The students actively interacted with the speaker and sought clarification as and when needed. The workshop concluded with the distribution of handouts and miniature guidelines to the student participants.

Report on Rastriya Ekta Divas

IQAC Lumding College has organised programmes and events related to Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel and his contribution for the unification of the country on 3rd November, 2016 at 11 A.M. Essay writing competition on the character and contribution of Sardar Patel, current issues of Unity and the 'most creative slogan' contest on the relevance and importance of National Unity and inspiring and motivational lectures were organised on the occasion. About 104 students participated in the event and the top three participants were awarded prizes. Besides, all the participants were given a certificate of participation. The chair person had highlighted the significance of the day and its observation. In his key note address, he had emphatically suggested the importance of Unity within the Nation which is the crying need of the day. The celebration ended with the vote of thanks by the convener.

Report on career in cloud computing, Mobile Application Development, web Development and cyber security.

At the commendable initiative by IQAC a motivational programme and career counseling was organized with special emphasis on cloud computing, Mobile Application Development, Web Development and Cyber security at the conference Hall, Lumding College, Lumding on 7.11.2016. A total No. of 74 students from 3rd and 5th Semester had actively participated and derived utmost benefit as far as their future selection of career is concerned. Mr. Parkshit Sen, Regional Manager, i-nurture, Education Solution, a resource person of the programme, had a close one to one interaction with the participants and had clarified various misgivings regarding cloud computing skills and inspired the students to be original and creative in their career pursuit. He had also assured the students of easy access to his office and all possible assistance with regard to application technology both for learning and practice.

Report on workshop on Government Job and Banking

In one of its incessant attempts to guide and inspire the student community through quality workshops and counseling programmes the IQAC of Lumding College, Lumding has organized a motivational workshop on 19.11.2016 with focus on career in Government Job and Banking in Lumding College at the conference Hall which housed about 90 students and a few teachers. The target audience was the students of 3rd and 5th Semester courses ready to pursue their career in various fields. Sri Samir, Director and Founder, Digit foundation, centre for education and social elevation had highlighted the scope left open in the Banking sector as well as civil services. He also made it transparent to the aspirants about the opportunities in Public Health and Public Welfare sectors. Students were also given tips to prepare for various competitive examinations as far as govt. jobs are concerned. Useful guidelines and hand outs were also provided to the participants to enable them to locate the sectors of their interest and aptitude.

Report on workshop on the scope in science and technology

A workshop on the scope in Science and Technology was held at the initiative of IQAC on 25.05.2014 at Lumding College. Around 42 students were actively involved in the workshop which was conducted by Sri Samrat Bose from IIT Beneras. In his invaluable address, Sri Samrat had highlighted the opportunities in India's emerging Fintech sector. He opined that though young, India's financial technology (Fintech) is growing rapidly, fueled by a large market base, an innovation driven startup landscape, and friendly government policies and regulations. He also highlighted on the changing scenario of Health Care services. New software for material controls and Employee accountability etc. are in the offing. He further motivated the students who were aiming to take up research projects in the future. The workshop concluded with distribution of web links and printed hand outs.

Report on workshop on Career Development

A workshop on career Development was held at Lumding College on 24.05.2013. The IQAC of the college had invited speakers from Bengaluru and Mumbai. The speakers discussed in detail various steps involved in career development such as Assessment, exploration of various Resources, Reality testing implementation and access to career counseling team etc. They also focused on some core factors, closely related to skills analysis, Talent Assessment and Succession planning etc. Students were given to understand various objectives, opportunities and obstacles in the process of developing their career. References of some leading Multinational Brands were provided to the participants who can establish their contact with those leading brands in order to sort out their career. The workshop concluded with vote of thanks by the Co-Ordinator of IQAC of the college.

