

REPORT ON

OBSERVANCE OF RABINDRA JAYANTI, 2018

On Wednesday, the 9th of May 2018, the birth anniversary of noted Bengali poet, scholar, novelist, playwright, philosopher and Nobel laureate, Rabindranath Tagore was celebrated at the premises of Lumding College. The programme began at 10:00 AM where the teachers and students gathered near the statue of Rabindranath Tagore placed at the entrance of the college. The programme initiated with the lighting of diya and they paid homage to the great poet by placing a garland on the statue. After this, the program continued at the seminar hall of the college where the principal Dr. Mrinal Kanti Paul delivered a short speech on the life and contribution of the Nobel laureate. Following the speech, the cultural activity took place wherein the students recited poems, sang songs and performed music and dance composed by Rabindranath Tagore. The programme was beautifully conducted keeping the spirit of Tagore's ideals in our hearts and minds.
