

Observance of Kalaguru Bishnu Prasad Rabha Diwas on 20th June

Kalaguru Bishnu Prasad Rabha Diwas was observed on June 20th by the Lumding College fraternity. As part of the daylong celebration, a truck playing Rabha Sangeet was arranged by the district administration which came to Lumding from Sankardev Nagar, and was received by the college. Students and faculties promoted the venture by accompanying the truck around town.

An event was organized by the Assamese department in the Seminar Hall. The formal event started at 11 am in the Seminar Hall with the lighting of lamp in front of the portrait of Bishnu Prasad Rabha. All faculties and students present paid obeisance to the extraordinary man by showering flowers at his august portrait.

Then a Rabha sangeet "Bisware chande chande" was sung by the students of the Assamese department. After the song, Ms Binita Bhuyan, Assistant Professor, Department of Assamese took over and invited the Principal Dr Mrinal Kanti Paul, the IQAC coordinator Dr Sanjay Kanti Das, and Mrs Sarvari

Debnath, Head and Associate Professor, Department of Bengali, to take their seats on the dais, after which they were felicitated. The principal, Dr Paul, gave the welcome address and talked briefly about the life of Rabha. Dr Das in his turn enumerated the many qualities of the legendary artist Rabha. Mrs Sarvari Debnath talked about the contributions of Rabha in detail. Later, Dr Akhil Kalita also gave a speech about the revolutionary ideals and aspirations of Rabha focusing on his fearlessness.

In between the speeches, there was a recitation of a poem by Rabha as well as another group song on a Rabha Sangeet. A Rabha sangeet “Eiye mur xekh gaan” was sung by Mr Biswajit Nath, Assistant Professor, Department of Assamese. The programme then ended around noon with a vote of thanks by Mr Biswajit Nath.
