

Report on World Poetry Day Celebration

On March 21, 2023, Lumding College celebrated World Poetry Day with great enthusiasm. The event was organized by the Cultural & Literary Committee, IQAC, Lumding College in association with Murchana - the Cultural & Literary Club of the college. The celebration commenced at 10:30 a.m. in the seminar hall with an insightful speech by Dr. Jahnabi Das from the Department of Bengali, Lumding College. Dr. Das highlighted the significance of poetry in human life, emphasizing its role in expressing emotions, advocating social causes, and fostering cultural exchange. Following her speech, the poem writing competition started which saw the participation of 23 talented students. Students from various semesters and streams enthusiastically took part in the competition, showcasing their creativity and literary prowess. After careful evaluation by the judges, Rupali Devi from B.A. 4th Semester and Sneha Dutta from HS 2nd Year emerged as the joint winners of the competition. Their poems resonated with the theme of World Poetry Day, reflecting depth, originality, and literary excellence.
