RASHTRIYA EKTA DIVAS- 2019

Sardar Patel is most popularly known as a founding father of the Republic of India. This is because he played a significant role in integrating the independent provinces into a unified India just after the partition of India and Pakistan. He also acted as Home Minister during the political integration of India and the Indo-Pakistani War of 1947.

In 2014, Rashtriya Ekta Diwas or National Unity Day was introduced by the government of India. The official statement for Rashtriya Ekta Diwas was provided by the home ministry of the country. It cites that the National Unity Day “will provide an opportunity to re-affirm the inherent strength and resilience of our nation to withstand the actual and potential threats to the unity, integrity and security of our country.”

IQAC, Lumding College, too organized a programme in view to observe the day. The programme started at 10:30 am in the library hall of the college. At first the ceremonial light was lit in front of the photo of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, followed by a floral tribute to his photo. Next, Principal of the College, Dr. Mrinal Kanti Paul, delivered a speech on the occasion. He spoke on the life of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel. After his speech, IQAC coordinator, NSS Chowdhury, also delivered a speech. He too highlighted the importance of the day and spoke about the contributions of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel in India’s freedom struggle. The programme ended with a Vote of Thanks by Dr. Jahnabi Das, Assistant Professor, Department of Bengali.
