

AWARENESS PROGRAMME ON CORONA VIRUS

An awareness programme on corona virus was organized by the Women Cell, ACTA Unit, Lumding College on the 14th of March 2020. The main objective behind this awareness programme was to familiarize the school students with the issue of the ongoing pandemic in easy terms and help them understand it better. The awareness programme also aimed to educate the students regarding precautionary and safety measures that should be adopted in order to tackle the virus. The venue for this programme was Vivekananda Memorial School, Gour Basti, Lumding. 20 faculty members and 25 students from the college attended the awareness programme. The resource persons invited for the occasion were Dr. Jashodev Arjun, Associate Professor of Zoology Department and Dr. Sanghamitra Das Bose, Associate Professor of Zoology Department, Lumding College. The team reached the school premises at around 11:00 am. They were warmly welcomed by the school staff and students.

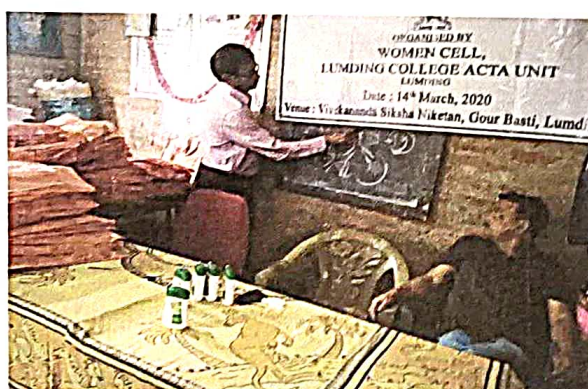

The programme started at around 11:15 am. At first the resource persons were duly felicitated, followed by their valuable speeches. Dr. Sanghamitra Das Bose in her talk spoke on the burning issue, that is, corona virus and highlighted various ways to prevent it and tackle with it if one gets infected. She also spoke on the basic preventive measures like maintaining distance from people, proper sanitization, wearing masks, isolating oneself if infected by the virus and various other related issues.
