

Report on awareness program on NAAC

An awareness program on National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC), was organised by the IQAC (Internal Quality Assurance Cell) of Lumding College, Lumding on 8th August 2023 which aimed at educating faculty, staff, and students about its significance and processes. NAAC plays a crucial role in assessing and accrediting higher education institutions across India, ensuring quality and excellence in education.

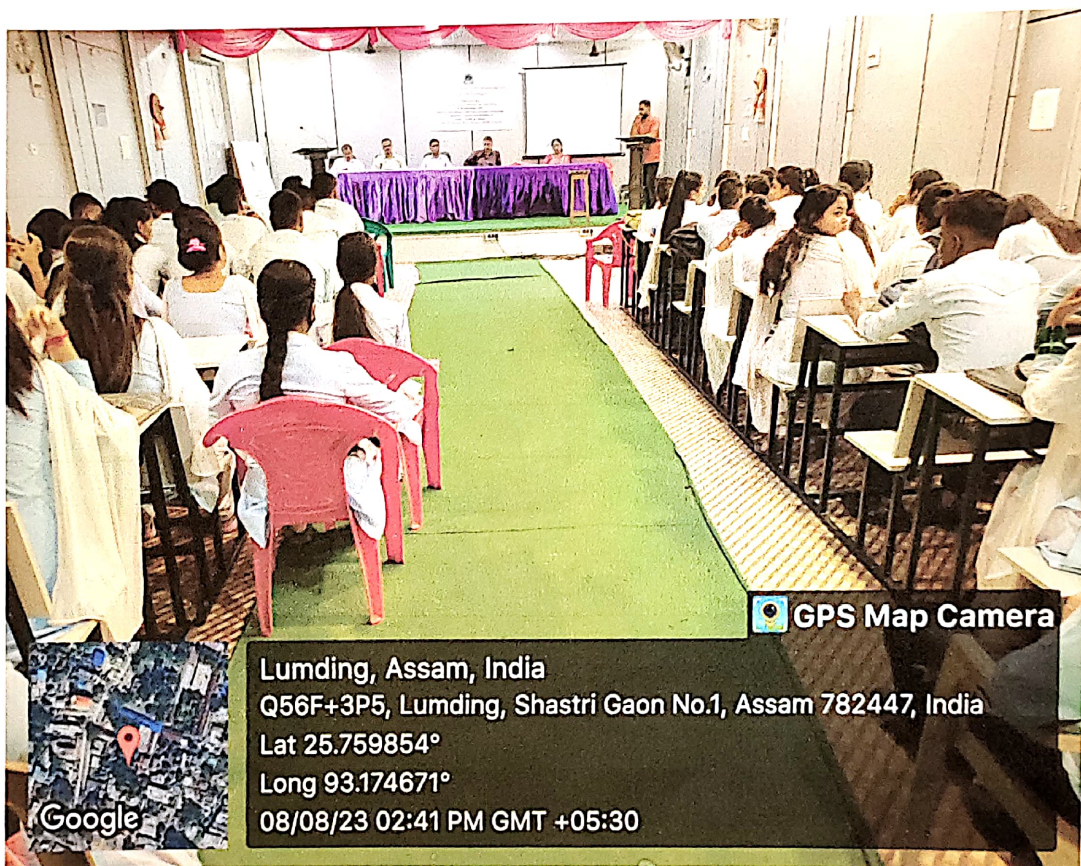

The program featured lectures by senior teachers viz., Dr. Sanjay Kanti Das, IQAC coordinator, Lumding College; Mr. Biman Acharjee, Associate Professor in the department of Physics, Lumding College and Mr. Narayan Dutta, Associate Professor in the department of Bengali, Lumding College who elaborated on the accreditation criteria, evaluation parameters, and the importance of achieving a favourable NAAC rating. Additionally, the program highlighted the benefits of NAAC accreditation, such as enhanced academic reputation, eligibility for funding and grants, and improved student and faculty satisfaction. Attendees were encouraged to actively participate in the accreditation process and contribute to the college's continuous improvement efforts. Overall, the awareness program served as a valuable platform for stakeholders to gain a deeper understanding of NAAC and its role in promoting excellence in higher education. It emphasized the college's commitment to quality assurance and its dedication to providing students with a conducive learning environment.
