NOTICE

This is to inform all students of Lumding College that regular classes for the odd semesters (Session 2026–27) have commenced. However, the current student attendance has been highly unsatisfactory as per online attendance portal.

Please note that if a student fails to maintain the required attendance, he or she may be disqualified from all the benefits of various schemes offered by the Government of Assam.

Additionally, students are directed to develop the habit of regularly checking the college notice boards and visiting the official website (lumdingcollege.org) for important updates.

All student-related queries must be submitted through the designated counters at the Office of the Principal, Lumding College.
